What information we collect about you

We collect information about you when you engage with the Careers and Employability team, for example expressing interest in supporting the careers fair, funding opportunities or working with our students.

Keep your details up to date by emailing careers@lincoln.ac.uk

How we use your information

We collect information about you to note your interest in working with the Careers and Employability team and save your contact preferences. Data is processed on the grounds of legitimate interest. If consent has been given we will contact you about services and funding of interest. The information is accessed by the University of Lincoln Careers and Employability team.

The University occasionally uses cookies and other technologies on its website that collect data about you when you use them. Where this occurs further information will be available in a cookies policy. The cookies policy for the University website can be found here: <http://www.lincoln.ac.uk/home/termsconditions>.

We use a number of suppliers who process personal information on our behalf. These include suppliers of software services. These act strictly on our instructions and must not use the information for their own purposes.

In exceptional circumstances we may be asked to share your information with police or other investigators if it would prevent or detect crime or safeguard a person's wellbeing. Each instance will be judged on its own merit and any sharing of information will be done within the law.

How long we keep your information

Information is kept for 3 years after your last interaction.

If you access additional University services these may keep a record of your contact and will provide you with details of how long they keep your information.

Accessing your information and other rights

You have a number of rights relating to your personal information. These include:

- Access You have the right to request a copy of any personal information we hold about you.
- If you would like a copy of any of your information please contact the Information Compliance team on the details below. The team will process your request within a month.
- Portability If you have provided information on the basis of your consent or for a contract then you can request a digital copy so you can send it to another organisation.
- To request a copy please contact the Information Compliance team on the details below. The team will process your request within a month.
- Correction If any of the information we hold about you is incorrect or incomplete then please let us know. You have the right to have your information corrected so that we hold accurate records about you.
- Erasure This is also known as the right to be forgotten. You can request that your personal information is erased if it is no longer necessary for the University to keep it, or you withdraw consent that you have previously provided, or you object and there is no overriding grounds to keep it or if it is unlawful to continue to keep it.
- Restriction You can request that the use of your personal information is limited to storage only and that we use it for no other purpose. This applies where you contest the accuracy of the personal information we hold, or our use of the information is unlawful, or we no longer need the information except in relation to legal claims, or you object to the use of your data and we need to verify whether or not our purpose for keeping it overrides the grounds of your objection.

The Information Compliance team can be contacted by email on compliance@lincoln.ac.uk or by post at: Information Compliance, Secretariat, University of Lincoln, Brayford Pool, Lincoln, LN6 7TS.

How to object or withdraw consent

If you object to our use of your personal information then we must stop unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for continuing. Please contact careers@lincoln.ac.uk and explain your objection.

If you have provided your consent for the use of your personal information then you can withdraw this consent at any time. Please email careers@lincoln.ac.uk
