Online Learning Reflection

- Online learning can be provided by LinkedIn Learning, Open Learn and Future Learn or other relevant platforms. Please visit our website if you would like to view suggested courses; www.uolcareers.co.uk/students-graduates/online-resources-and-learning/

- Reflect on what you have learnt from the video courses and complete this reflective log

- This activity is worth 5 points in the "Develop" section of the Lincoln Award

- When you have completed this document please upload it to your Lincoln Award digital pathway on CareerLinc; careers.lincoln.ac.uk

- If you need support please email; lincolnaward@lincoln.ac.uk and we will be happy to help

Online Learning Reflection

Name:

Student Number:

Skill Area:
Learning Platform:
Course Watched:
Length Of Course:
Please write below your personal reflection on the course.   There are no right or wrong answers for this section. There is no maximum word count but most people write about 250 words and often include in their reflection: • Why they took the course and what they learned from it   • How the course has influenced them and what they will now do differently   • How they will build on the knowledge gained and use it in the future.