

The University of Lincoln
Careers & Employability Service
Policy statement for students with Disabilities

The Careers & Employability Service is committed to equal opportunities and is keen to assist students and graduates with any disability and additional needs (including dyslexia). The Careers & Employability Service encourages clients to inform them about individual situations so that information, advice and guidance can be tailored to specific needs. Any information provided will be treated in confidence.

Electronic and printed materials published by the Careers & Employability Service for students and graduates will carry an accessibility statement.

ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENTS

- Web Accessibility Statement

The Careers and Employability Service endeavours to comply with University and external organisations' guidelines regarding accessibility and usability of its website for all its users. To this end the Careers and Employability Service is continually working to improve accessibility and usability to meet changing criteria and legislation.

- Statement for printed materials

The statement below should be included on printed materials published by the Careers & Employability Service. It might be necessary to change the wording for a particular purpose.

The information contained in this document can be made available in a variety of formats. Please contact the Careers and Employability Service for details.

- Statement for events/workshops/presentations etc

Clients are asked to ensure that, if they have a disability which requires additional support to enable them to take part in the (event/workshop/presentation), that they inform the Careers and Employability Service at the time of booking. This can be done by e-mailing careers@lincoln.ac.uk, telephoning 01522 837828 or by calling in person at the Enterprise Building.

Updated: 25/08/2016